street, opposite Odd Fellows' Hall.

nty-five cents,
mmunications to the Era, whether on
of the paper or for publication, should seed to G. Balley, Washington, D. C.

BURLL & BLANCHARD, PRINTERS, th street, a few doors couth of Pennsylvania avenue.

THE NATIONAL ERA.

WASHINGTON, DECEMBER 16, 1850.

They said he was dying—I knew if wax so. For his hine eyes looked not into ming, and calling the single to hike me from wo. With the high of the kingle and drine; covered him softly away from the obli! That was dimning his beauty—vain oftle thready if foil that the shadow of ill Was crossing his pathway of the and intended to notice the new volume of by Grsce Greenwood, just issued from the Ticknor, Reed, & Fields, Boston; but a correspondent has favored us with a re-it, which is so much hetter than anything cution, they stand out from these pages as prophistic, in a nobler sense than any others of thair author's future. They other one with a beautiful author's future. They other one with a beautiful static part of the sense of these beautiful verses, either to detect fealur of excention where this rather has per haps already discovered more than we, or to particularly the sense of t

For the National Era.

PART IV,-Continued,

It was that the wayward and erringeneous fellow ever deified even the gracutes of his betrothed. If felt, when he speke with all his coordivicities, he was so much than Regima as to be utterly hlind to on which was quite apparent to me, namely: some diseases infect the whole physicial so months travelling in Europe, and has recently returned?

"As you will not do! Butit is not I for whom you server more!" Tell me, then you will have a sitzer. The concrete perfect of the problem of the state of the not marry him !" said I, earnestly.

"I man! The hand or rate to our mo power to long payelf!"
"Then I am atop you! I can be atronger than fact. You shall not he married? I had the power I would bear out from my boom that which constantly recoils from him, though it were the one ventricle of my heart. I it is half past one deloot, my marriage-slay has some, dearest brother decoils, my marriage-slay has some, dearest brother for the state of the state of you?"

"To give me an opportunity, for the last time, of pressing my maiden sister to my hosom," said I, as I held her there.

"Yes! and with no intention of afflicting you with my sequinocital storms"—

"Your—what?"

gave place in her mind to a rapt enthusiasm she gazed, silenced and transfixed with adm

For the National Era.
INVOCATION.

THE NATIONAL ERA.

WASHINGTON, DECEMBER 19, 1850.

TO THOSE ONLY WHO ARE CONCERNED-A MISAPPREHENSION.

JENNY LIND IN WASHINGTON.

RELATIONS OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO SLAVERY.

his on the 71th instant, as reported in the Parly his Statemes, Ner resolutions of Mr. Suttliff:

"Mr. Suttliff offered for adoption the following selutions, which, on motion of Mr. Brackley, rere laid on the table to be printed:

"Resolved, That the Constitution of the United tasks established a General Government of limited powers, and earnessly reserved all powers to thereby delegated, to the States and the Peo-e.

ONE THING AT A TIME.

THE HONESTEAD.

BY MISS PHERE CARRY

and enough for thy one affi-

UNION IN THE SOUTH.

EXTRAORDINARY RECOMMENDATION OF THE P. M. GENERAL - ADVANCING BACKWARDS.

INDIANA CONVENTION.

MARYLAND CONVENTION

GEORGIA CONVENTION

NO. 207.

CENSUS OF MASSACHUSETTS.

LAW FOR SLAVES.

LETTER FROM LONDON.

onio.

Renben					-	- 1	33,093
Edward		th,	Free 8	Bail		-	13,756
Scatteri	ng	-		-	-	-	93
						2	268.047

OHIO LEGISLATURE.

WILLIAM D. GALLAGHER.

LOW PRICES AND LOW PARES

hoped to live till the day exhibition of trus philan first, separately, acted upon. On

DOMESTIC MARKETS.

THE NATIONAL ERA.

REMEMBRANCE.

FREE SOIL TRIUMPH.

ad in any wey, direct of intervers, inframous law, g an interesting address from John a, of Warren, it was . That the doings of this meeting be as several papers in this county and l Era at Washington .

BUELL BARNES, President.

SON, Scaretary.

Any control of the control were pessed unan-lated by the control of the control of the con-ting people, and as such will support the Con-ution of the United States, and all laws unde conformity thereto; but the infamous Fugitive ve bill, passed by the Congress of the United to at its late seesion, is a olear violation both

FOR the Mathenal Era.
FAREWELL MISSIONARY MEETING.

THE FRIEND OF YOUTH-VOL. II, 1851.
A MONTHLY NEWSPAPER.

the Kulleburgh estition.

TREMS.
For any road of the TREMS.
For any two of the Best certifieds,
For any two of the Best certifieds,
For any two of the Rest certifieds,
For any threat of the Reviews,
For any threat of the Reviews and the Reviews,
For any threat of the Reviews and the Reviews,
For any threat of the Reviews and the Reviews and

P, H, WATSON. E, S. RENWICK.

Inventors and Monufacturers of the Ethiopian at Fare-Proof Paint, Wilmington, Clinton Co., Ohio W. MYERS, No. 319 Main street, new Bighth, Cincinnati, Ohio, So Agent for the United States, to whom all orders must it addressed.